

Certificate of Joo Mee Kim

I, Joo Mee Kim, hereby state as follows:

1. I am an attorney admitted to the practice of law in the State of New York and the District of Columbia, and a senior counsel of the firm of Rothwell, Figg, Ernst & Manbeck, P.C. I worked on the petition under the unintentional provisions of 37 CFR 1.137(b), filed October 29, 2007, to revive US Patent Application No.09/992,824 (the “‘824 application”). The petition was filed in the name of ATOUCH CO., LTD, then assignee of the ‘824 application.
2. In or about August 2007, Kyung-Yeol Yoo at SINJI Patent Law Firm located in Seoul, Korea, requested our firm to handle the above-mentioned petition to revive unintentionally abandoned patent application, and thereafter our firm prepared the petition and the required amendments together with Sung Hoon Chun and Hun Soo Lee at SINJI Patent Law Firm.
3. On or about October 29, 2007, Robert B. Murray, a member of our firm, filed to the USPTO on behalf of the petitioner, "Petition for Revival of Unintentionally Abandoned Application" and "Amendment and Reply under C.F.R. §1.111 Accompanying Petition for Revival".
4. After receiving the USPTO's Decision on Petition dated February 27, 2008, on or about March 19, 2008, I sent a copy of the Decision on Petition together with my cover letter to Sung Hoon Chun of SINJI Patent Law Firm in Seoul, Korea.
5. In or about April 2008, in order to further investigate the circumstances surrounding the delay in filing the required reply involving US Patent Application No.09/992,824, I obtained, through SINJI Patent Law Firm, the petition's authorization to contact the petitioner's former US patent agent, Brian S. Steinberger at the Law Offices of Brian S. Steinberger, P.A.
6. Subsequently, my firm contacted Brian S. Steinberger and obtained his correspondence documents related to US Patent Application No.09/992,824.

7. In or about August 2008, I was told from ChongSu Seo, Manager/IP&Business Development at Iljin Display that Mr. Seo is directly handling the petition case and I sent all correspondence documents obtained from Brian S. Steinberger to Mr. Seo per his instructions.

I hereby certify that all statements made herein are of my own knowledge and true, and made with the knowledge that false statements are punishable by fine or imprisonment.

Dated: 9/25/08

By: Trullu